

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Date: September 22, 2017
Contact: Grace Fisher, Office of Communications Director
E-mail: MDOCCOfficeofCommunications@mDOC.state.ms.us

Parchman Inmate Serving 66 Years Dies

JACKSON – A man serving 66 years for multiple crimes, including sexual battery and tax evasion in Walthall County, has died in prison.

David Earl King, 83, was pronounced dead at the hospital at the Mississippi State Penitentiary at Parchman Thursday night.

King was sentenced on Aug. 30, 2001, for sexual battery, conspiracy to commit a crime, and contributing to the delinquency of a minor. He was sentenced again on March 22, 2002, for six counts of sales tax evasion.

The cause and manner of death are pending an autopsy.